

Heart Resonance

Divine Love Healing

Judy has been working with Heart Resonance Therapy (HRT) since 2005. Judy owns and operates Third Eye Healing Centre, a successful spiritual healing centre in Margate, on the Redcliffe Peninsula.

I have found that since working with Heart Resonance energy, I have had some amazing results and wonderful feedback from clients who come to my clinic for treatments. I have also experienced personal growth on so many levels, an acceleration of my own unique unfoldment. Embracing this beautiful energy has given me an allowance to open myself up to the massive potential that has always been who I am. The more I use the tools I teach either on myself or with clients, the more I find I flow within my heart energy, opening my intuition, changing my perspective, softly surrendering to the magical flow of my life, observing the perfection. Using Heart Resonance energy gives me a powerful tool to bring me home to my heart, where all truth unfolds. I am always happy to share my experiences with you and it brings great joy to my life to be teaching Heart Resonance Therapy, expanding this beautiful modality throughout this amazing planet that we live on.

So what is Heart Resonance

HRT is hard to explain in words as it is a feeling rather than a thinking process. The best way of knowing what Heart Resonance is, is to try a treatment and experience it for yourself.

HRT is an energetic healing system that is fairly new on the planet and was grounded by Trevor Gollagher over a period of about 15 years. Initially, Trevor saw Heart Resonance as a healing modality, but he now sees it as a system that can align your consciousness into the new energy of the Earth and spiritual ascension. It still is a wonderful healing modality, but much more.

One of the wonderful aspects of Heart Resonance, is it tends to merge you into a detached and allowing space. This helps you greatly in living with less stress and burden in your life. The more you use it, the more the energetic quality of HRT aligns you with universal consciousness and divine plan. This puts you at the forefront of the energetic shift that is currently happening on the planet.

How does it work?

A HRT practitioner is able to resonate a powerful "Divine Love Centred" energy field and in so doing, transform disease through the process of entrainment. The HRT practitioner can travel on to any level of a person's existence you instigate powerful and positive shifts, clearing emotional stagnation and residues that burden the body.

From a spiritual level, HRT awakens new energy pathways within the body allowing the body utilise a higher light frequency. HRT greatly expands consciousness and intuitive abilities, and aligns you to the energetic changes we are currently undergoing. This puts you at the front of the boat so to speak of the ascension process to Godself awakening.

HRT is taught in three levels, with a fourth teaching level available. Even though HRT is taught through numerous levels, it is not essential that one move past the first level.
